

The Wayfarers Barbershop Chorus is a male, acapella, four part harmony chorus drawing its members from all parts of Sefton and surrounding areas. The chorus exists to make singing enjoyable for its members and audiences and to raise funds for charity; a worthy cause is chosen by the membership each year - currently the Southport Soup Kitchen.

Performance venues range from small care homes to theatres and churches.

New members, whether experienced or not, are always welcome.
